PERSPECTIVE VIEW.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN.

SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

The handsome frame house shown here is the residence of Mr. A. P. Adair in Bowen, Ill. It has no cellar, but the foundation is stone. The outside walls are sided, and the roof is shingled. The interior is trimmed in natural finished pine. The plan is economical in the matter of cost, expense of furnishing and labor in caring for it. There is no useless or waste space. This house can be built in Illinois for $3,000.

THE NEW YORK TEAMS

Both American and National Clubs Setting a Swift Pace.

YANKS' STAR PITCHING STAFF

Clark Griffith's Team Has One of the Best in the American League—Tenney, Bridwell and Donlin Have Strengthened the Giants.

Possibly one of the most important facts which have been developed since the beginning of the present baseball season is that New York city has two very good baseball teams. Without becoming hysterical and claiming the championship before the season is very old it is fair to say that the teams which are playing for the edification of the New York populace this year are likely to afford a vast amount of amusement for everybody if they maintain the pace which they have set in the early part of the season.

Clark Griffith's American league team is putting up a first class article of ball, and now that Pitcher Jack Chesbro has given ample evidence of his return to form the chances of the Yanks in the race are improved. It also looks as if Manager Griffith has found a pitcher of rare promise in Walter Manning, the Williamsport (Pa.) recruit from the Tristate league, who has demonstrated his ability to go the route and, what is more, to return the Yankees victorious. Glade and Orth have not uncovered their real form yet, but it is safe to predict that these performers will send them over when Old Sol condescends to let loose some of his hottest rays. Griff also has Newton and Hogg, both of whom, while erratic, are capable of pitching high class ball, to say nothing of Joe Doyle, who should win many more games than he loses.

It really begins to look as if the Old Fox at last has a pitching staff which will carry the team through a successful season, always provided, of course, none of the box men is hurt in a mishap on the diamond. Judging from what the Yankees have accomplished in the race so far, the outlook for an American league pennant is brighter than at any time since New York was made a part of Ban Johnson's circuit. The Giants are playing good ball on their western trip, and if luck breaks their way Manager Johnny McGraw will have great hopes of landing the flag. Fred Tenney at first base has put new life into the team. Bridwell, another old Boston player, is putting up a good game at short position, and Arthur Devlin is demonstrating that he is still one of the greatest third basemen in the business. Larry Doyle, under Tenney's coaching, is playing a better game at second this year than he did last. The outfield could not be improved upon. Mike Donlin is hitting the ball as hard as he ever did. Cy Seymour is about due for another great season with the stick, and "Spike" Shannon is still there with his occasional hit.

The pitching department is not as strong as it might be. Taylor, Ames and McGinnity have not shown up well so far, but later on Manager Johnny McGraw expects the old timers to come back to their own. Crandall, the Giants' young pitcher, has shown major league caliber and is assured of a berth in the big league. The mighty Christy Mathewson is now pitching as good ball as he did in 1905. With "Big Six" in good form and when the hot days in June come around to take the kinks out of the other old timers' arms the Giants will be about the most formidable team in the National league.

Golfer Lyon to Stay Home.
George Lyon, amateur golf champion of Canada and winner of the Olympic honors at the St. Louis games, refuses to go to England and to represent the Dominion. The Olympic committee would allow only $400 for his expenses, and he asserted $800 was necessary. Lyon says his decision is final.
